RESPONSE

Sir:

In response to the Communication from the Examiner mailed June 17, 2003, in the above-identified case, a revised Response and Amendment is attached hereto. The attached Response and Amendment is intended to take the place of the Response filed on March 3, 2003, in this case, which was found to be not fully responsive by the Examiner. The attached Response and Amendment corrects a number of typographical errors and antecedence issues. It is believed that the attached Response and Amendment addresses the Examiner's concerns and fully complies with the current provisions of Title 37.

Respectfully submitted,

Leander F. Aulisio
